ERWIN SCHRÖDINGER: Ireland's adopted son: panel discussion

4 October @ 6:30 pm

A look at how Nobel Prize-winning Schrödinger came to be in Dublin at the outbreak of World War II, and his life in Ireland from 1930-1956. A panel discussion with Arthur Riordan, Cormac O’Raifeartaigh, Professor Luke O’Neill and moderator Eucharua Meehan. This event is part of DIAS’s programme of events marking 75 years since Schrödinger’s infamous ‘What is Life?’ lecture series.
